

Dress-Up Cottage

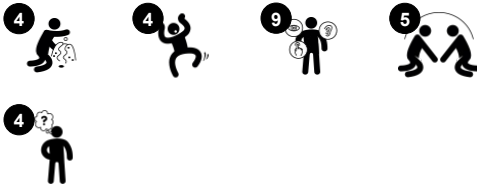

NRO605

This little cottage is a wonderful role play setting for hours of imaginative play. It has numerous special play details like the clock, bell, mirror, and shelf flaps for exploration and dramatic play. These play items stimulate logical thinking, creativity, and the understanding of object permanence and identity. It also has an open design for socialising, all while having fun in a colourful, natural timber house. The Robinia timber provides an organic structure, that can either blend into or stand out from your surroundings. Children can touch and feel the timber while acting out their imaginations and social play, observing how nature inspiration interacts with the built environment

Mirror

Cognitive: understanding of individuality and self expression. Stimulates dramatic play, language and communication skills..

High curtains

Physical: tactile stimulation supports sensory skills, when children explore the characteristics (e.g. hardness, weight) of the materials. Social-Emotional: invites parallel play, having two similar curtains. The curtains set a tangible theme and thus spur dramatic play.

Desk

Social-Emotional: great meeting place and space creator for storing or sitting.

Desk flaps w. holes

Social-Emotional: cooperation, turn-taking and parallel play inspired by the two flaps. Cognitive: shifting things through holes to shelf supports logical thinking and understanding of object permanence.

Shelf

Cognitive: suggests a theme and supports dramatic play, which stimulates languages and communication skills. Gives the option of dramatic or explorative play.

Clock and bell panel

Cognitive: understanding cause and effect when ringing bell, learning about numeracy and time in a tangible way. Creative: creating new positions on clock or with sound creating a rhythm when ringing or knocking the bell.

Window

Social-Emotional: invites interaction between sides and cooperative play.
