

Long Nose Truck

NRO562

The Long Nose Truck appeals hugely to children and invites for hours of dramatic play, again and again. The varied climb and crawl activities in the truck's sides and front ensures physical activity that trains cross-body coordination. This builds body confidence and stimulates the cross-modal perception which supports e.g. reading skills. The gear shift and steering wheel add to the imagined driving. Dramatic play is the favorite play type for younger children. Apart from building an understanding of the world, dramatic play trains language, communication and social-emotional skills intensely and builds the fundament of learning and making friends for life.

Theme

Cognitive: suggests a theme and supports dramatic play, which stimulates language and communication skills.

Window

Social-Emotional: invites interaction between sides and cooperative play.

Funnel

Social-Emotional: trains cooperation and turn-taking as children put materials into the funnel. Cognitive: the passing of materials through funnels supports the children's logical thinking and for younger children the understanding of object permanence: that materials don't vanish but run through at the other end.

Supportive handholds

Physical: handhold provides good grip for less confident climbers. Trains upper body muscles.

Gear shift

Social-Emotional: cooperation, turn-taking, sharing. Cognitive: suggests a theme and supports dramatic play, which stimulates language skills.

The overall framework applied for these factors is the Environmental Product Declaration (EPD), which quantifies "environmental information on the life cycle of a product and enable comparisons between products fulfilling the same function" (ISO, 2006). This follows the structure and applies a Life-Cycle Assessment approach to the entire Product stage from raw material through manufacturing (A1-A3))
